Upper School Constitution

We, the students of Dayspring Christian Academy, in order to encourage unity throughout the school, maintain order, reflect the light of Christ in our community, and foster an environment of learning, do ordain and establish this constitution. This document demonstrates our agreement to strive for the mastery of the following principles through the power of the Holy Spirit:

1. In growing in godly character, we will strive to...
 - act in a manner worthy of the Gospel of Christ (Philippians 1:27);
 - pursue excellence in every area of school, work, and life in general (Ecclesiastes 9:10, 1 Thessalonians 5:22, 23);
 - demonstrate self-government in consideration of others (Titus 3:2); and
 - allow the Fruit of the Spirit to grow in our hearts and lives (Galatians 5:22, 23)
2. In regard to authority, we will...
 - acknowledge the authority of God’s Word
 - respect the authority granted by God to our parents and to the Dayspring faculty and staff. (Romans 13:1-7; Hebrews 13:17).
3. Concerning our brothers and sisters in Christ, we will strive to ...
 - honor our fellow students, considering others more important than ourselves (Philippians 2:3, 4);
 - encourage one another in sincere love (Hebrews 3:13);
 - keep peace with one another at all times (2 Corinthians 13:11); and
 - use our individual gifts to serve one another in love (Romans 12:6-8).
4. Grateful for the property of which we are stewards, we will...
 - maintain our personal belongings;
 - treat the possessions of others with respect; and
 - treat facilities with respect.
